BEAUTY

MISS ROLLINS

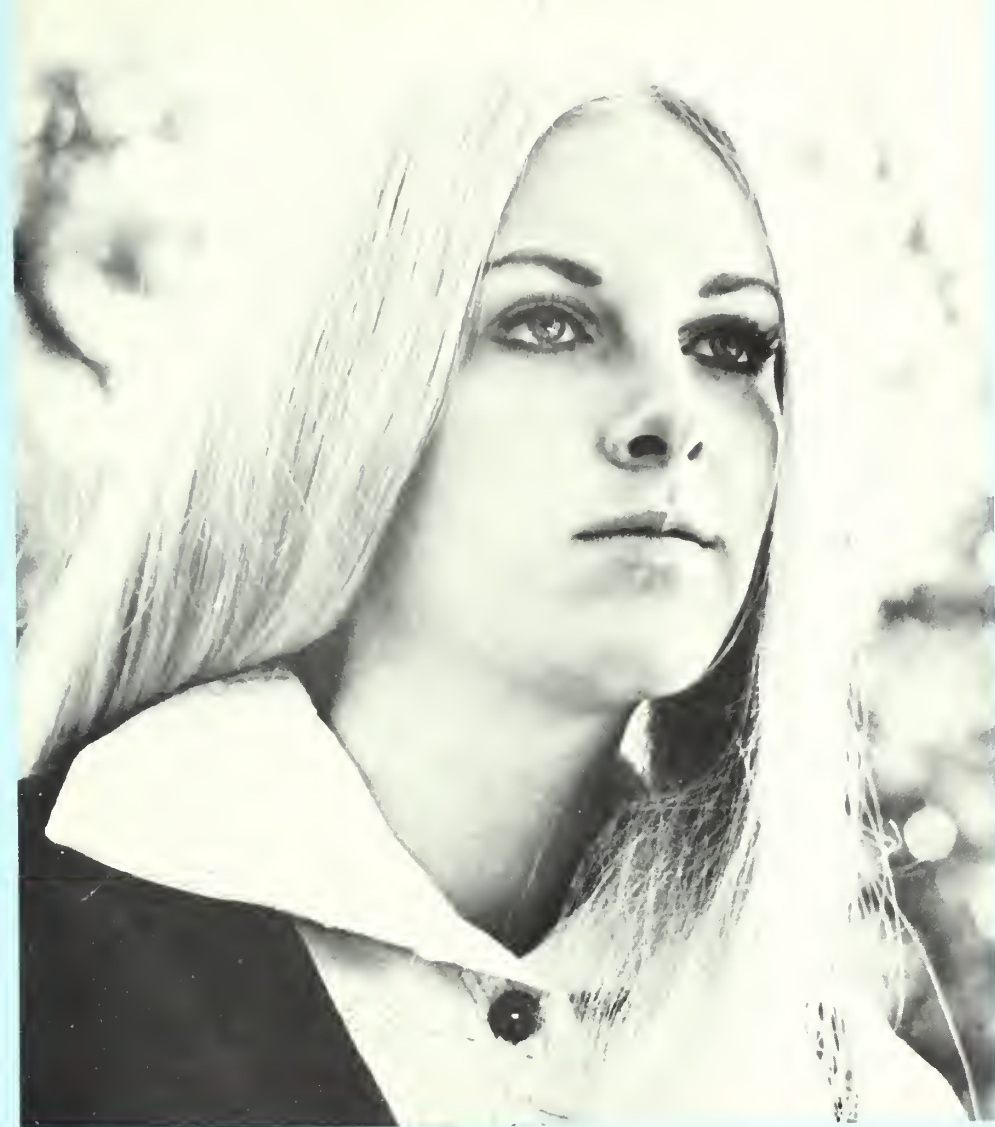

KIM SPRINGATE

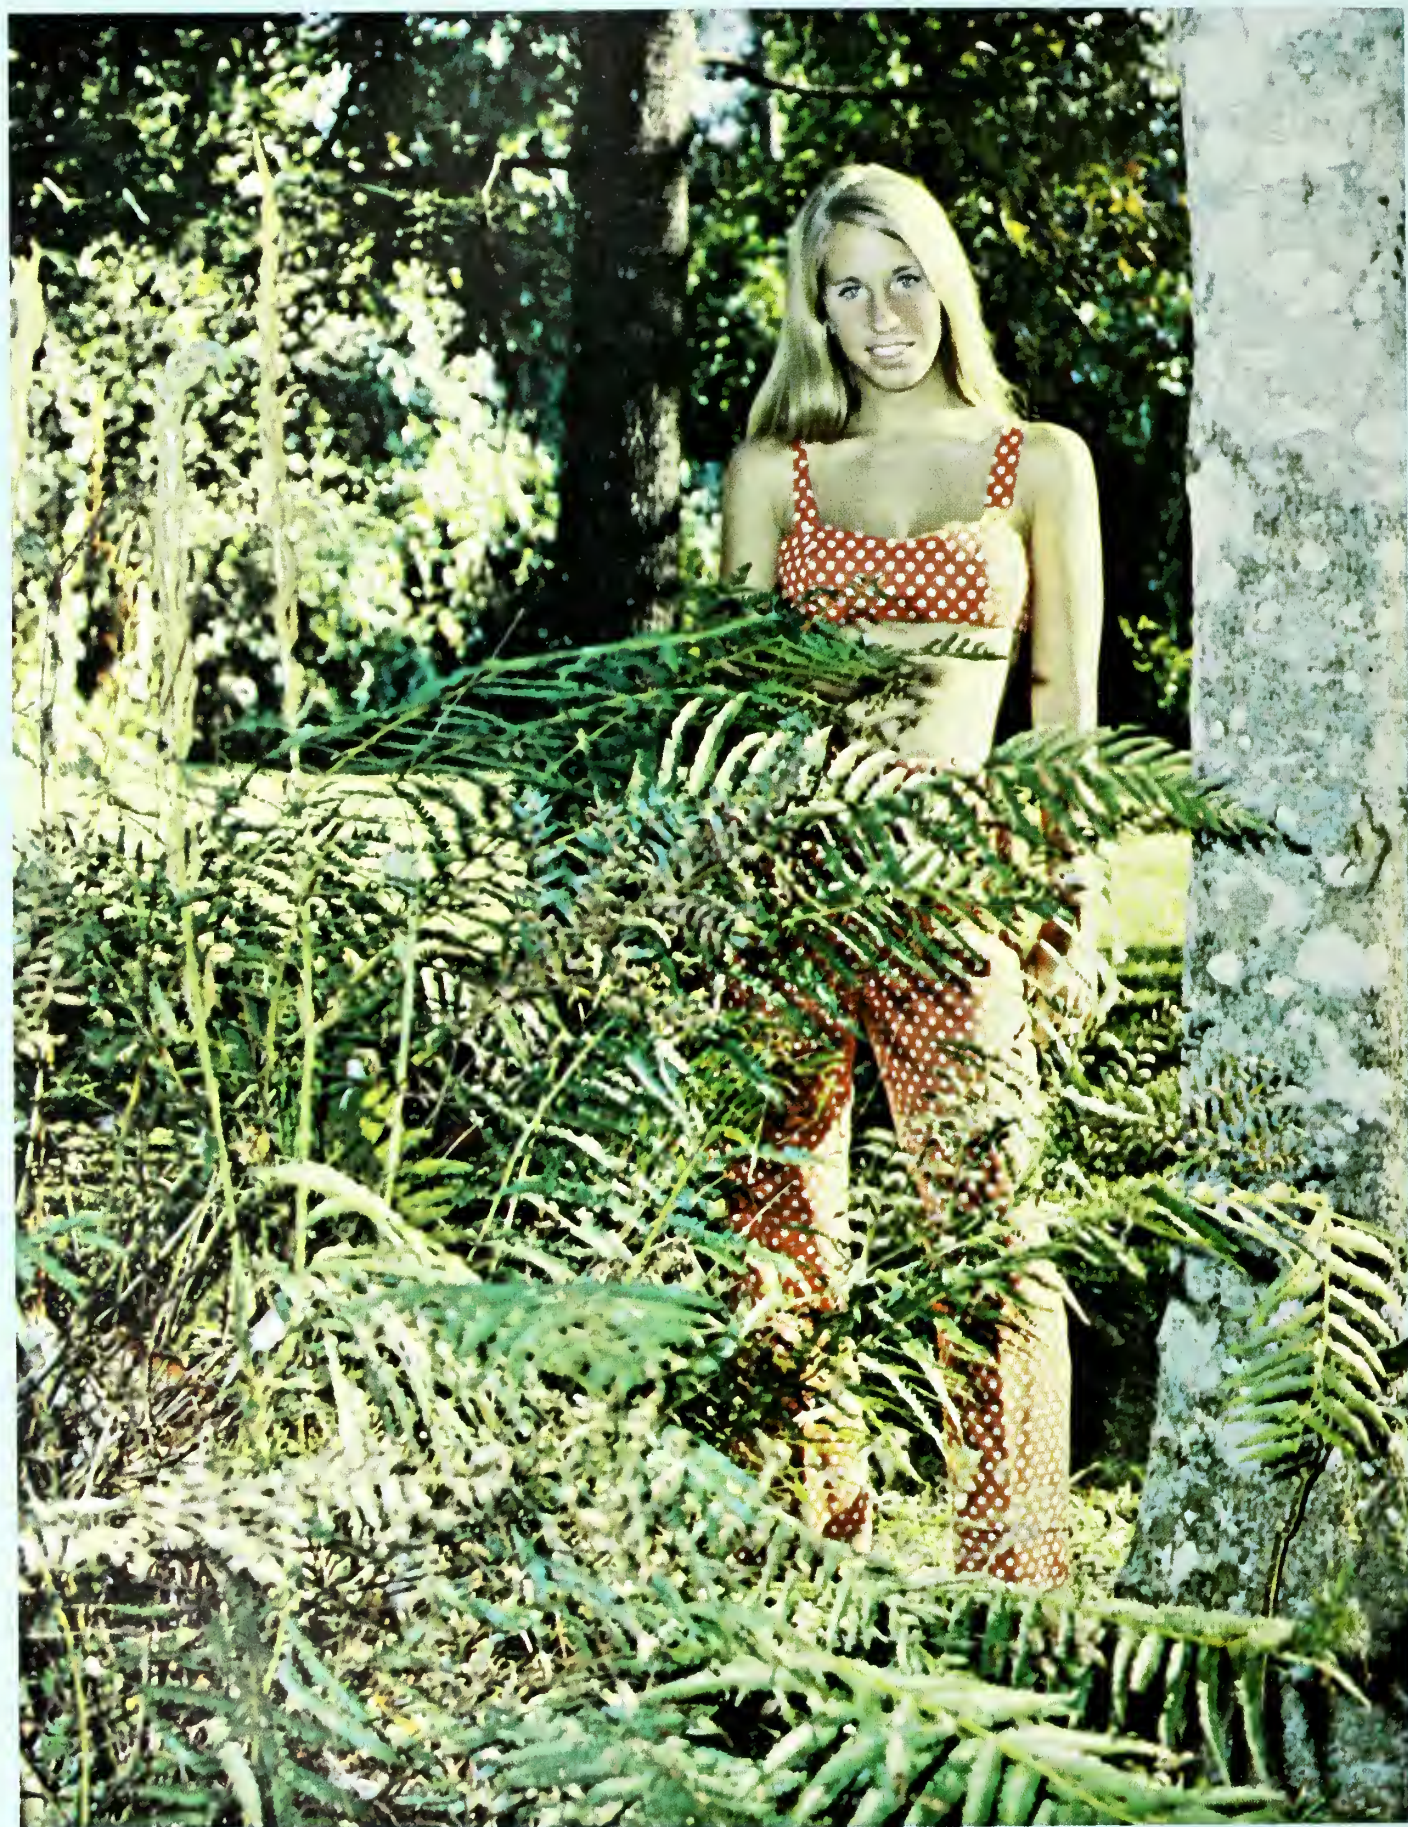

One of Rollins' favorite traditions is the Miss Rollins Contest held each May. Moving out of the Gamma Phi courtyard into the Bush Science Center auditorium to accommodate the growing audience, seventeen co-eds paraded in casual outfits, cocktail dresses, and swimsuits. Judges searched not only for beauty, but for poise, charm, and the ultimate cool that typifies the Rollins girl.

Miss Rollins 1969-1970: Miss Kim Springate. A junior from Merritt Island, Florida, she is well-known to freshman women as the president of Pan-Hellenic. Kim is a Chi Omega, and was presented by Phi Delta Theta.

FUN SEEKERS UNITE

Another year for Beta Lambda comes to a close and we find the Alpha Phis "coming and going" . . . For example: Madam Margot crosses wires and flies through the medium, while Jackie, the Hawaiian native, prudently ponders, and Paddock makes her presence known — clunk, clunk, clunk. Remember Tootsie's memorable arrival at McCoy and as always, Shover's modesty is "abundant." Then, Bald-wins battle of the Genes, and Canaday's Winter Term becomes a "Mission Impossible." Have you heard, Presidents attract — right Williams? . . . and furthermore: Bev Classon seems unruly without her Marshall . . . Ginkel, alias Ginky, knows her ABC's . . . Carmen Boudet remains loyal to Spain . . . Lawton storms the Met . . . Howell hits the Barze . . . Antje became a resident day student . . . the Gavel passes to Frank . . . Mann finds a new city of Brotherly Love . . . Verlie has Doug a new path . . . Religa blows another fuse . . . Deutsch conquers West Point . . . Scharfie "fishes in" John . . . Roni romps in Rome . . . White flips her wig . . . Barry breaks into the theatre . . . Bill, becomes the battle of Britten . . . Novak is Alpha Phi's own Mary Poppins . . . look what Sue Johnson brought in from the surf, a Pucci original . . . Have you heard, God is Haworth's co-pilot . . . Question what is in the lab, no one's seen Xandy . . . Marvelous Merlin Johnson conjures up aesthetic concoctions . . . YAF is All-Good! Joye-Sweet Charity . . . Wedding bells sound closer and all's well over Puerto Rico — right Paula? Dehner's doughnuts sell like hotcakes . . . Everhart adds a graceful Tahitian touch . . . Krohn frosts crown . . . Stein wears out ouiji . . . Stiedley's future looks promising — Ross wills her the key to the Math lab . . . Cooper becomes the night owl of Alpha Phi . . . Benedict breaks Beanerie habit . . . Lincoln lurks in Panama looking for Spider Monkeys . . . Katy's classical repertoire adds culture to the lullaby scene . . . Harper's tavern pushes George Dickel . . . Peter makes Bunny hop . . . C.T.'s energy is inexhaustible as she cheers the Tars on . . . and all's Merry in the Math Department . . . Finally we find Mrs. Pierce passing out her gold stars and Odessa remaining as always, our sister confidante. The End

The Chi O owl dons his gypsy outfit and makes the following predictions for the coming decade of the 1970's. Chi O's will be attending many weddings. The most famous of which will be Elsie's to Tom Jones, with a honeymoon at the La Siesta. Gidget will take up housekeeping with Bob, and Blocker, after much deliberation, will decide to stay with Pete and his big rock. Betsy P. will give up her binoculars and concentrate on one Star. Our owl foresees much traveling with Paula taking off for Freeport with her Maxwell House coffee and Alice opening her own shuttle service to Daytona. Dale will sometime return from the Canary Islands with a new list of her top ten. Michelle will return to J.R.C. and Lynn will come back from Spain. Baird will be driving around in a new Joel type jeep and Carter will finally graduate.

The Chi O's will open the 70's in style beginning with Ondie's premiér at the Copa Cabana with her famous impersonations. Ann S. will make history with her new speech beginning with "listen People", while Carol W. will become U.S. Treasurer. Ann J. will invent a new perfume designed not only to get men but to keep them as well. Bonnie will write her own "Advice to the Lovelorn" column and Betsy S. will be made "homemaker of the Year" — but her dishes will not include chicken. Cece will become president of the P.T.A. while Val will be Den(ny) Mother.

Other predictions include Kim's decision between Tom, Dick, and Harry, Lou's own telephone, and Diana's activation. Candy will go Hip and Fran will get a Strohe Light (to distinguish it from Strob). A few Chi O's will not change too much — Nancy will still be ranking on a scale of 1 to 10 while Amy continues to use "Elvin's Glue" as Jamie works on her III bag of Chips.

Lastly, the Chi O's give Marni an all expense paid trip to Washington for her year's duty as Ann Lander's, Financial Wizard, and warden of the women's prison. To end — here's to our fabulous fifteen — Karen included.

Famous Quotes From The Gamma Phi House

Arg – "You wanna get married?!!" Brand – "You don't have to leave it in the hall!" Boothie – "If he has a moustache, I'll consider." Barnhill – "I'm too busy to do it all." Coop – "Why do all the salads have to be in alternating diagonals?!" Mary – "I've never used those black patent leather shoes." Patricia – "First the flowers and then the trash can – I wonder if that means anything?" Lolly – "They have such good meat at Publix!" Howell – "I can't find the car keys anywhere." Miss Fuller – "But I don't WANT your lavalier." Hubb – "My name is NOT Pat" Lissa – "But I just fell asleep!" Phipps – "Why does everybody pick always pick on me??" Sutherland – "It's not written in the constitution that way." Sullivan – "Is anybody going to mass?" Dale Ellen – "Sorry Mac, I'm tied up for the next six years." Hamilton – "You're welcome to a cookie if you pay for it." Mrs. Malone – "I can't believe it! ME?" The Pledges – "Exactly when is the Pledge meeting??" And so goes another year at the Gamma Phi House.

PI BETA PHI

A giant color wheel is a fascinating thing. When spinning, it produces one color — that of white. When stopped, it is seen that every color of the solar spectrum is represented. So it is with Pi Phi — unity and individuality forming a solid wheel composed of unique personalities. Thus, we have the following:

This year there were several Academy Award performers among the Pi Phis. Cindy starred daily in the continuing story of "The Making of a President," and nightly she played with Jim Rudy in "The Great Escape." Jane had the lead in "Phantom of the Opera" but no one ever quite caught a performance. Taffy played the war widow with Jacqueline Kennedy dignity and Joan received special recognition for her outstanding characterization of a Jersey greaser in the off-Broadway play, "Airport." After watching many episodes of Mission Impossible, Kelly finally pulled off one of her own — a magnificent jewelry heist. Whittaker got the Girl Blunder Award for her part in "A Stitch in Time Saves Nine," and Taulbee discovered she could sing a solo as well as a duet. Sally mastered the art of One-Upmanship, and whether Wheels was One-up or One-down she always had a sense of humor. Gaby quarterbacked the Dating Game and was never caught behind the line of scrimmage, while Jenny got off the social merry-go-round in search of other things. Billie was living proof that "true love never runs smooth" while Leithal was still trying to decide exactly what true love was. Allyson was our answer to Jimmy Page or the Pasaic High School Marching Band and Beth, modeling a devastating paper bikini, was our answer to Racquel Welch. Santa took Muffie to London while Melinda bided her time and ran up horrendous phone bills much to Gretchen's chagrin. Mimi and Sherry lived in a secret garden and Patty just lived in secret. Gretchen burned the candle at both ends, but somehow never managed to catch on fire and Linda Long was our Sally Schoolteacher. If Judy Ives was the KA's queen, Ruthie was certainly their princess. The members of the Pink Ghetto followed a policy of forced isolation, but despite this handicap, Janimal seemed to be everywhere, doing everything, all the time. Hey, Mathes, would you mind dressing up a little for a change? And, Ru, are you sure you don't need a pair of wooden shoes? $10.98 but for you, $5.99. Ahh — and then came the pledges. Candy was the ringleader, and how she ever managed we'll never know, because Genie was always out of control, especially when she proved "there's always room for jello." It seemed that several mass media makers recognized the talents of our pledges. Marianne was asked by Clairol to do a "hate that grey? Wash it away!" ad while Susan Upton was asked to do some stunt driving in "Grand Prix" and Nancy Kaiser was offered the lead in the remake of "The Pink Panther." Coppertone wanted Barbara Reid and Pepsodent wanted Janet. Lorie played an amazing guitar and, oddly enough, her favorite song was "Message to Michael." Tenda and Nancy tooled everyone into thinking they transferred from Paris. Pretty good act for a Texan and a New Yorker. Sara must have lived on Cheerios because she was always running at 78 RPM's while Jane just took it at about 33 and 1/3. Imagine our surprise when we saw Christie pitch a softball! Buck-up you Kappas! Chris got full credit for a great sense of humor, especially her sarcastic one-liners, and Marilyn remained an enigma. Finally, while Linda Stahle roller-skated down the yellow brick road, a few knew a pony in Central Park named Susan.

KA

Looking at the KA's this year we find:

Bird and duPont had an occasional 12 hour party, but Otis is the only person we know who can get 12 credits on a Safari. Breater changed his address to Lemares and Corbett came to parties when he thought his hair was alright. Warner was surprised when Camelot came true for him with the same cast. Gamber is on a constant happy hour at the Beef. Strober arrived on the campus with the John Davidson look and left with the Yule Brenner look in his Santa Roca original. Johnny King still likes a good parade and Guy laughed and he also waved his arm. Peter Brown is still somewhere between Winter Park and New York. Nathan traded his Porche for a jeep to enhance his image and all the actives got special insurance so that Dick could drive their cars. Blair? Blair who??? Lang is still trying to find a date for Old South and Lowman is disappointed because his economic venture at the Scene didn't pan out. While all the pledges were on a field trip to the Toggery Hermans was at the Salvation Army. Lasher had his father engineer a merger between Gucci and W. H. Brine for his athletic attire. Kissel is the only KA since duPont to get along with the administration. Although Derek had the best toys on campus, they were all lemons and Huge immortalized the helmet look, Babo lost weight but Julie and Janet didn't call. Childs took the pledge program over from Philly but John can still drag out the meetings to 3 hours. Ted got a golden tan in Detroit and Mucho went to bed at 1:00, got up at 2:00, but it was 25 hours later. Peebles replaced zippers with buttons and Shep saved the cow from court but it cost him $25. Fog man did many memorable things but he doesn't remember any of them. Carlos Bell worked on his rifle arm from left field and David King laughed at his own jokes. Wynne and Welles combined to make Bank Americard stock rise 3 points. Midge, isn't it add . . . , and even in Florida Peter needed a sun lamp.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

1970 was that kind of year for the Lambdas . . .

Westfal did a fine job as president as he kept a hold on things . . . Bieberbach suffered from lack of Jane while Wilson almost died from lack of Connie . . . Big Daddy Ross remained himself — fat . . . Buttner was married for the third time and Fran taught Jonap how to drink . . . Colket was a new man (?) and Wright continued his growth . . . Job kept breathing . . . Hoggie was up to hi-Jenks living next to Fiske, who continued to orbit the earth . . . Jarrell did everything for the house except keep his mouth shut.

Barrow was Bartow's man of the year . . . Berger moved off but still tried to get in while Aspinwall retained his legs . . . Cavicchi had his putter, Dinger had Bette, and McComb had a wife . . . Ghent rejoined society and Matthews joined the F.B.I. . . . at the crux of the matter, Hurlburt was the new president but Martinez was a dark horse . . . Miner was the fraternity landlord . . . Winslow (who?) was married (what?) . . . Pistor continued to get pimped.

Frankly, Ashley was replaced . . . Berry bought the Q.T. Club which Troxel thought was a lark . . . Hawk was a Consler . . . Kinney and Metcalf had their sweat hogs and Bert became a Kappa . . . Shetter lived in his car. Whitmore lived in New Hall, while everyone wondered where Fusco lived . . . Livingston taught us to dance, Cutler taught us some moves, and Richards taught us a lesson.

Who can forget the best pledge class on campus, three bids, Carl Schwab, the naked ape, the Dobbs House, Monroe Brannon, and the hammer.

PHI DELTA THETA

It was another great year for GORMO. Captain Cullifer hired him as a gardener on his watering abilities alone . . . MARGESON became the "Man of La Muncha." . . . MELLEN got Burned by Cochise's flaming arrow . . . BUSCH tripped over a Cauble stone, and PENDREY became a G.I. Jo . . . MAGOO gave-up the lake instead of cigarettes . . . DROOPY found it "Easy to be Hard," while COUP found it hard to be easy . . . DERBY wore green . . . HACKETT didn't do anything . . . and LOESCHER does it in the morning . . . Don't worry, BLEAK, "It's Growing!" . . . You may not know it, but KLEIN runs Rollins College . . . and DICKINSON runs home to his Mama every night . . . If that's the phone, it's for CHUCK . . . for RYAN: "One More Round" . . . THORPE went to a Deb party . . . from "the Man of La Muncha," we dedicate "The Quest" to PREZIOSO, for no reason whatsoever . . . another dedication to POLITICO: "I'm A Hog For You" . . . to Marcus Kest, M.D., alias PAPA go all the rites to "Turn of The Century" . . . to BARRY: "He Was My Brother" . . . FINNETTI: "Baby, You Can Drive My Car" . . . to all the actives: "Sergeant Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band" . . . to the pledges: "Animal Farm" and "Zoo Story" . . . speaking of which, MURPH became the new ring-master of the Phi Delt circus . . . HOMER starred in Hee Haw Junction . . . PUBIE added mutton-chops to his already Grubby appearance . . . FERGY just lay around the house, and other places . . . WESTON . . . DIEGO hi-jacked an eight to Ecuador . . . DONI smiled almost too much, funny thing about that . . . Despite the fastest Fall with a pin, FAT FRED remains the undefeated champion of The Dating Game; . . . and BESTIC, our elevator operator, repainted his Helmet . . . For those guys who weren't around enough to merit any comment goes one big BLAAAAAAAAAAAAAP!!

TKE: yearbook information

It was a good year for TKE as financial reasons brought us all closer together. We will remember many things such as Spencer getting a straight arrow in the back from the lottery. Stoneface found out that condors make it only in the theater. Humm replaced Mohan including a self-destruct Afro hairdo. Does Getts really like fish better than people. R. M. Buckaroo fought the sewer and kept clean. Is it true there is a pool hall in Grosse Point Shores, Worm? Kramer got a head as president while Leon read The Snake Pit and moved the Cowboys to Denison with his support. What student council president ran his own case study on visitation — and loved it? Tonka Tank found out that even Brooklyn cab drivers like air and water. Some took little league Oreo's advice only to find Wen-zel cat's away, the Jarman will play. Mange won the Sigma Nu brotherhood award with only a whistle while Ricchi barely avoided a Sandy trap. Does Ring Magazine have an Ace in their hand? Zeke strung along the look-alike twins with AMF. Art — Crummer 3hrs., Kathy 21hrs., TKE Ohrs. Robin found that his cheering section produced at soccer games only. No wonder Penguins are good at soccer, they have webbed feet. Weisser put the Texas Longhorns in #1 with Furtrapping experience from the West. The Swedes really went for those big hands — hey Walter! Murray Burns does it for good? Our Skinny representative to the newspaper found it had all ready gone to the presses. Roby wants to know if trained methodical killers can listen to Rod McKuen at Ft. Dix. Greasy made Gordie's hustle list, Roger's hit list, and the girls were impressed — one at a time. The Hummingbird remains forever our Sweetheart. Prediction for next year: Since good statmen never die, Rich says Crummer by seven.

X Club

Once again the X-Club has shown the guiding light and extended itself into all walks of life — grossing out disgusting, and revolting all those in its path. The following are brief summations of the illustrious biggots who help make the club a closely knit force in the continuing story of the "Rollins Family".

Westey has become a connoisseur this year — first it was kosher dishes — then juicy Lucy — and finally crabs Woman. Don't you ever get tired of eating left overs, Paul? To Clyde wherever you are. Drop by and meet the Rush Chairman — you'd be surprised he's not all that nice a guy.

To our financial genius Chuck. What happened to all the parties we used to have? Support the Club sure, but the Treasurer and his family too.

To Harry, the Wisconsin red-neck. The girls at the FBI will miss you — at least they know you're a real man. Right Kathy, oh sorry — just nod.

Dear Bill you sexy little twerp. If in any sport there's a hole to be filled, you're always there.

A great fisherman, so you tell us Russell, Dinks anonymous, and, yet sometimes I wonder if the "n" couldn't be replaced by a sea.

Sure Gard. you can do whatever you want in life. Can't he Janet?

To David F. . . . You're junior year has been your best here at Rollins. How does Italy sound for next year. It's your only chance for being an Outstanding Clubber. Poor, defected Warren — you only said "you wanted to date other people". Some people just can't take a joke though.

Really Warren, Steiner — "The Impossible Dream". Kahuna, you've got serious troubles. You just can't go up to a Viet Cong and say "Hi, big fella". Although not the Club's athleticstar, you're by far our best switch-hitter.

J.J. Don't ever let it be said, "we don't have ours". As far as your loves go — "fourteen year olds" to JoJo — well what can you say. Don't you ever get frustrated? Janet thinks so.

Photo man: How did everything come out in Washington; Dana that's what happens when you misplace your lens covers.

Roomie became an overnight entrepreneur when he found out that an old adage really works — many heads are better than one.

Corky remained #1 on Corky's list of good guys this year. Neil — you will write us from Stanford next year — won't you.

Stricky-Dicky — did spent a lot of time in his dorm this year, but Mike why do they all wear make-up and hair curlers.

Cecil b de Galvin did a remake of the movie "Splendor in the Grass" but the realtor rated it E — for evicted. Your Christmas cards weren't exactly in the Christmas spirit this year were they Critty, but that's OK. Dick will still let you be a counselor next year: if you're out on bail, if you have less than seven dates a week if . . . if . . .

Chris — you have really been a pretty good guy this year despite the fact that your new speakers are still the only things in the school louder than yourself.

ToeToe — now that you don't row crew, and now that you don't visit us anymore and now that you have stopped enlightening us with your perceptive gems of wisdom — just what do you do?

Boy D. alias Petey alias Duxbury Dingle alias (censored).

Torr — once again you have outdone yourself. You have endeared yourself to Coach Howell and Miss Vanderpecker. We've even heard that Gretchen still loves you. With character references like that, we can't help but think we must be all wrong.

Once again Jack has contented himself with Twiglets when available, and the neighbors below a majority of the time. Jack tried to get into the seasonal spirit — working with a little Holly, but the wreath's cherries turned out to be just berries, so for lack of something better to do, you may be raffle chairman this year.

Dan — Kim told us she would like to complain about a ticket she received for parking near Lake Oseola last year — she claims you still owe her something. There is one thing we have learned from basketball this year — bowling is really your bag.

Dave has really found himself this year. Before his excursion overseas he was content to merely fondle his testtubes and play postman with Sonny and Candy — then Wawla Wawla came along — shortly overridden by some more Fuller respect — now it's neck and neck between Phoeves Woman and Mr. Cockran's 3 inch beaker. Fudge — it's been good to see you this year. We realize how much the club needs you, so we hope your participation hasn't deteriorated from your ogleing with Miss Fidao. Next year could be very rewarding for you B.F. if Coach Howell's adage " . . . when girl meets soccer player — sparks fly," doesn't prove true.

In your case Buzz, the sparks will be from the cans dangling behind your fender.

Bert: How is Taffy Thompson? We are really glad for the Club's sake that she sent you back your ring, high school jacket letter sweater pin, etc. Seen Miss Adams much lately? Well Bert, for lack of helmets, you can always report to the toe!

As for the Maggots: you have been so invaluable this year that we find it hard to list all your good points. Just your 4.3 accumulative average more than speaks of itself. Don't worry though fellas, cause our pledge program will make boot camp look like a run for the daisies.

In June of 1969 Rollin's varsity golf team competed in the NCAA College Division National Championship in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The tournament was four rounds with 18 holes a day played at the University of New Mexico golf course. Rollins led after 54 holes and following an extremely close final round finished second by one stroke to San Fernando Valley State of California. The score was 1231 to 1232.

For their respective scores of 303 and 307, Tom Cavicchi and Fred Schick were named Small-College All-Americans. The remaining Rollins players and their scores were: Taylor Metcalf at 309, Guy Ashley at 313, Mike Brelstord at 314, and Dan Kinney at 325.

TOMOKAN 70

There were those who led . . .

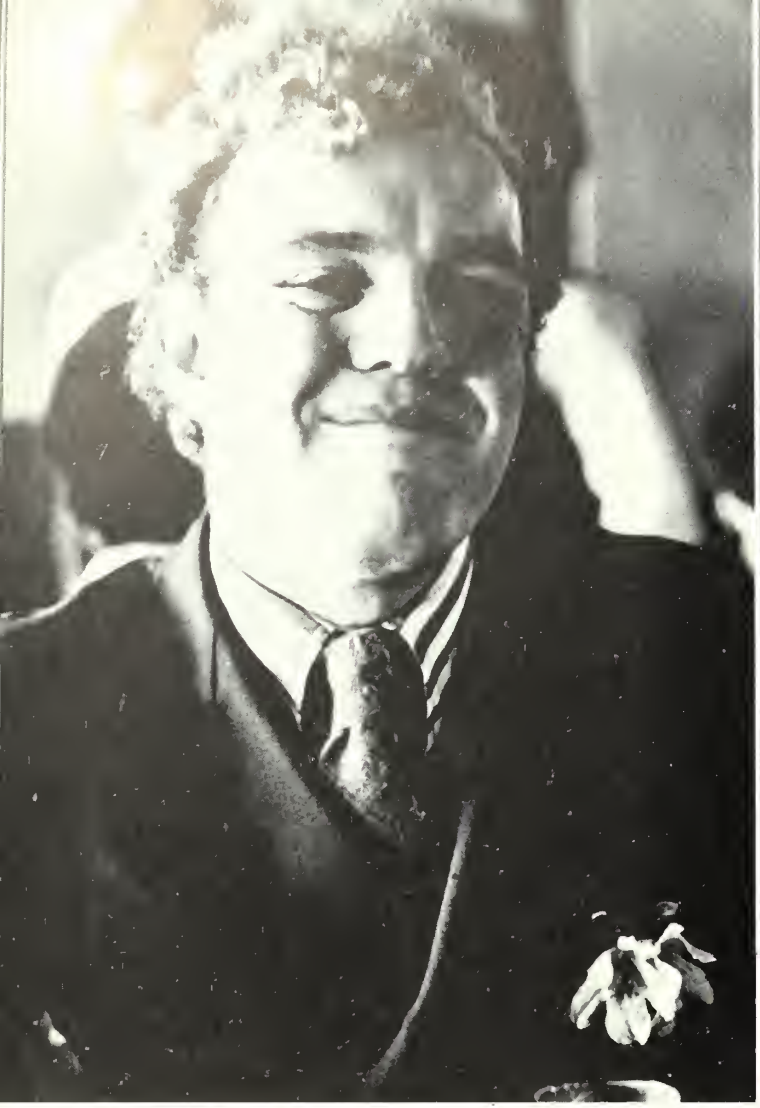

... and
who accepted.

... and
accepted.

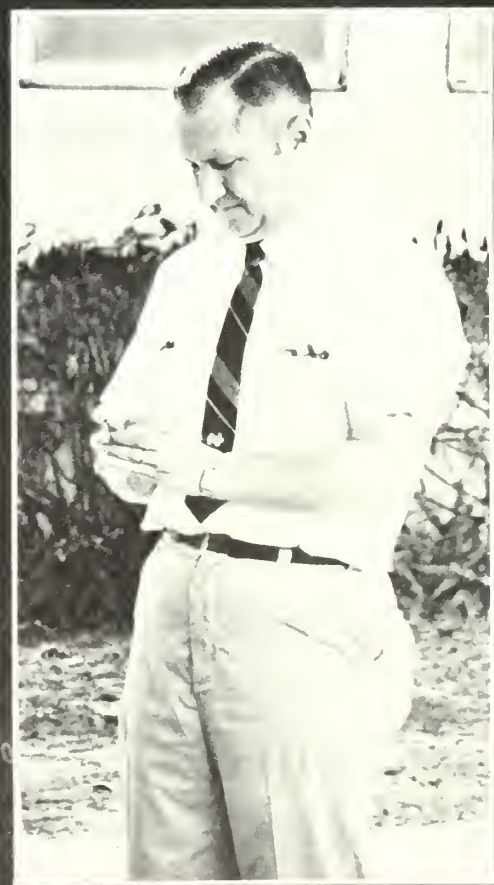

He who went straight;

those who went astray;

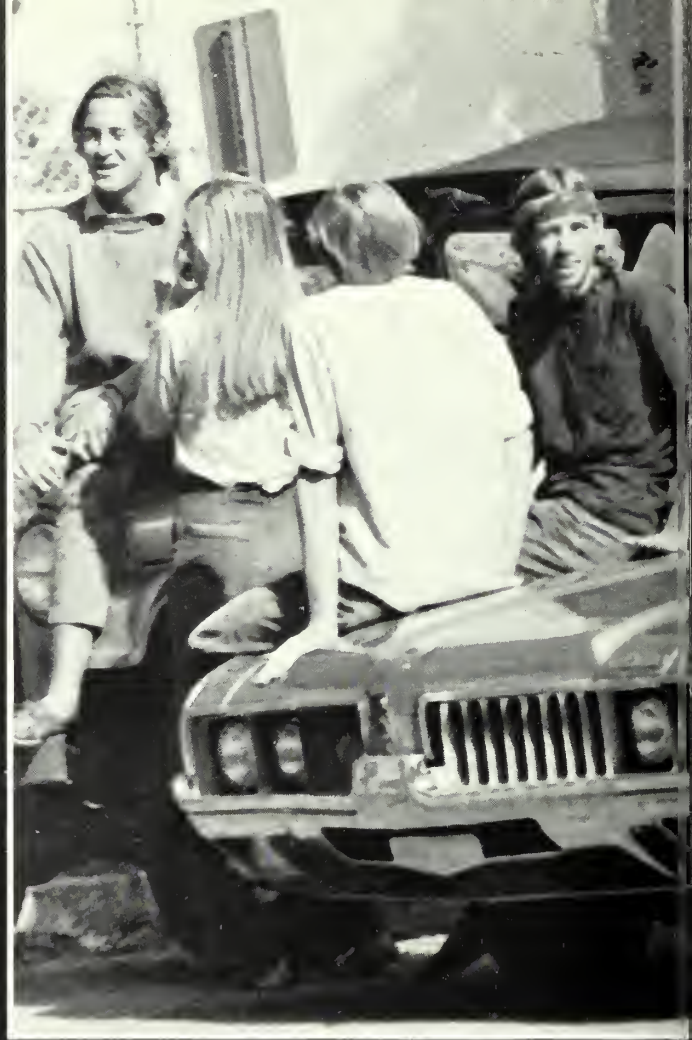

and
went!
